USE OF THE CALLAN BRAND

A company’s brand is a very valuable commodity as a trusted symbol of quality and distinction. The Callan brand is respected worldwide for the excellence it offers its students. It is important that we all work together to protect and enhance the brand that we all represent.

The Callan brand identity and trademarks must be readily recognisable and familiar in every town, city and country where schools teaching with the Callan Method are located. This offers benefits to everyone. Think of Coca-Cola, Apple, Nike, Starbucks and Rolls-Royce as some examples of particularly strong brands that are carefully managed and protected to ensure that wherever they are seen throughout the world, they represent a consistent identity and quality standard.

Under the Callan Accreditation Scheme, Callan Method Organisation permits Callan Accredited Schools to use the Callan brand identity and trademarks. However, to protect the brand for everyone, we must ensure that it is used in a careful and consistent manner.

The following document provides clear guidelines on how, when and where we will permit the Callan trademark, including the Callan logos, to be used. We have also provided marketing materials that can be used by Callan Accredited Schools as templates for local advertising.

Adherence to these guidelines will ensure that we can all work together to protect the Callan reputation and communicate a strong, consistent message to reflect the same set of values around the world.

Please note that failure to comply with the Style Guide may result in withdrawal of Accreditation.
1. USE OF THE CALLAN BRAND

CALLAN TRADEMARKS
‘CALLAN METHOD’ BRANDING

Any school that is not Callan Accredited but is purchasing the Callan Method books and teaching with the Callan Method may say ONLY that it teaches with the Callan Method in publicity material and on signage. This must be a simple statement only, to the effect that the Callan Method is taught, and must not imply any form of Callan branding.

ALL Callan logos and the Callan trademarks are restricted for the sole use of Callan Accredited Schools and it will be considered an infringement of Callan-owned intellectual property for any school that is not Callan Accredited to use them without the express permission or agreement from Callan Method Organisation Ltd to do so. Such infringement will be rigorously pursued.

USE OF ROBIN CALLAN IMAGES

Please note: no image of Mr Robin Callan may be used in any circumstances without his prior written approval. Please contact CMO Ltd, 45-47 Mill Way, Grantchester, Cambridge CB3 9ND, UK to enquire.

For example, none of the following are acceptable:

- Callan School Ambridge

We would also ask you to hold true to the core messages outlined below when you’re talking about the Callan Method.
